

Consider sponsoring the camp that is fun for all abilities ages 6 – 21.

Camp Sp'Arc is a fun and inclusive summer camp with The Arc Northern Chesapeake Region for children ages 6 – 21, where campers are matched up with volunteers/buddies to have the best camp experience. This is a great way to bring youth together in our community, regardless of ability – to be included and have fun together.

Consider becoming a Camp Sp'Arc sponsor today!

We understand that you may be approached to support many organizations. Our Camp Sp'Arc sponsorship package offers an exceptional opportunity to gain exposure throughout the local community and to show your support for children of ALL abilities. Camp Sp'Arc, a camp developed by The Arc Northern Chesapeake Region, is a one-of-a-kind community-based summer camp in Harford County, Maryland.

Camp Sp'Arc

During each week of camp, campers, volunteers and staff will travel into the community for an inclusive and empowering experience that is fun for everyone. Each camper will get a “buddy” to partner with on activities, as well as build a friendship.

About Camp Sp'Arc

Camp Sp'Arc launched in 2019 and was developed by The Arc Northern Chesapeake Region (The Arc NCR). It is a community based, inclusive summer camp for children ages 6 – 21 years old.

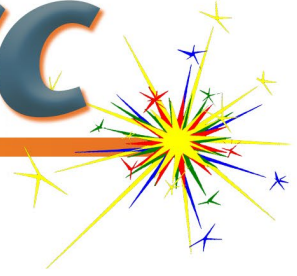

This year's Camp Sp'Arc will be taking place over four weeks, starting the week of July 17th and will run each week through the week of August 7th. The camp will be based out of The Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd in Bel Air, MD and will have themes for each week with lots of fun activities throughout the community.

A sponsorship of Camp Sp'Arc will go to supporting the needs of the camp; including, supporting campers in financial need to participate in 1-4 weeks of camp, transportation to and from community activities, a camp nurse, camp supplies, and activity costs.
